B. Read the following passages and answer the questions.5.5 pts.)

Languages vary greatly from region to region. They are so different that a person may not understand the language of someone from another region, country or continent. It is not surprising to hear that today about 7000 languages exist in the world. There are more than 2000 languages in Africa, 1000 in the Americas more than 2250 in Asia, about 230 in Europe, and more than 1300 in Oceania.

Native speakers of these languages range in number from very large, with hundreds of millions of speakers, to very small, with fewer than 10 speakers. The most popular language in the world is Chinese. More than one billion people in the world speak Chinese. Interestingly, English has fewer native speakers than Chinese, but there are about one billion learners of English all around the world. They learn English as an international language.

All languages are really valuable, despite their differences. Every language is an amazing means of communication that meets the needs of its own speakers. It is impossible to imagine the world without language. Therefore, we should respect all languages, no matter how different they are and how many speakers they have.

True or False

- 55-English has around one billion native speakers. a. True b. False
56-Languages with very few speakers don't meet the needs of their speakers. a. True b. False

Scan the passage and answer the following questions.

57. How many languages exist in the world?
58. Which continent has about 230 languages?
59. What is the most popular language?
60. How many languages are there in Africa?

What do these words refer to?

61. they (paragraph 2, line 4)
62. their (paragraph 3, line 1)

Wish you success
